

CSCA Hires Steve Carp as Varsity Baseball Coach

CSCA is excited to announce pitching coach and top assistant, Steve Carp as the new Varsity Baseball Head Coach. In addition to serving as our pitching coach since 2011, Steve has a vast amount of playing and coaching experience. He played in college as a pitcher and outfielder at the University of Georgia. After college, Steve signed with the Kansas City Royals and also played in the New York Yankees organization. He pitched at the AAA level in 1979. After his playing career, he took a position as the pitching coach at Broward Community College in 1980. Steve began working at the High School level in 1993, and has been coaching locally ever since. He has held both pitching coach and head coach positions locally before coming to CSCA in 2011. As the head coach at Westminster Academy, Steve won the Coach of the year award from the Sun Sentinel in 1994, 1995, and 1998. He also won Coach of the year from the Miami Herald in 1994 and 1998. He has also been a part of numerous District Championships, both as pitching coach and head coach. He has also been a part of a number of State Final Four appearances, and was the pitching coach on two State Championship teams (1999, 2000). Steve has worked with a number of highly successful coaches in both his playing career and coaching career. Among them Gene Michael, and well respected pitching coach Tom House. Steve also has had a role in the success of many local players who have gone on to both the college and professional level, including 2014 CSCA grads Touki Toussaint (2014 MLB 1st round pick, Arizona Diamondbacks), Jay Mohammed (2014 MLB pick, Seattle Mariners), Benito Santiago Jr. (2014 MLB pick, SF Giants, University of Tennessee), Devin Meyer (University of Miami), & Eric Hepple (University of Central Florida). Some professional players Steve has worked with include current major leaguers Mat Latos and Anthony Rizzo. For a full bio on Coach Carp, visit the link below. Coach Taylor came to CSCA for the 2013 season as the JV coach and has been a key member on the Varsity staff the past 2 seasons. We are very excited for what the Lord has in store for the CSCA Baseball program under the leadership of Coaches Carp.

<http://kidsbaseballchannel.com/about-us/>