STUDENT AUCTION WINNERS INSIDE!

Karate Little Dragons Rock!

Congratulations to Benjamin, Joey, Alexis, and Gianna for their Orange belt and Lucas and Christopher for their Yellow belt!

Great progress and spirit demonstrated by our youngest Tang Soo Do Warriors on Monday, March 19th at CSCA!

The promotion ended with 'board breaking' ... students get a huge feeling of satisfaction and sense of self fulfillment.

For these reasons kids especially benefit from karate through after-school programs. Karate builds self-esteem and self-confidence as well as teaches goals. Goals are obtained through the system of promotion of belts.

The Karate Preschooler program gives younger children the opportunity to enjoy some of the same benefits as the older children without requiring as much memorization. The Preschooler learns to focus, pay attention, be respectful, and become part of a team while thinking they're just having fun! A separate belt and promotion system for this age group gives our young karate students the satisfaction of working toward their own "black belt" just like the older students.

Looking forward to my Junior kids Karate promotion on Saturday, March 24th at United Martial Arts Center Dojo.

Crusaders' JV ball club cruising to kick off spring season

Coral Springs Christian Academy's junior varsity baseball team is already a force to be reckoned with. The Class 3A Crusaders are off to a hot start, winning five of their first six games.

In addition to having some returning players, there are a handful of strong eighth-graders who have contributed to the team's .833 winning percentage.

Josh Shrouder starts his third season for Coral Springs Christian, and aside from being mechanically sound and sure-handed, he brings his veteran presence to the infield.

"I think it's an accomplishment to be able to have the opportunity to play on the team for a few years already, and I hope I'm bringing leadership to the team," Shrouder said. "I know situations and I think I'll continue being positive and uplifting to my teammates."

Complementing Shrouder is Jordan Hill, with his live arm on the mound and defensive play at first base; and Thomas Orr's fluid play at second.

"There are a lot of advantages to having younger players on our junior varsity team," Crusaders' varsity manager Matt Cleveland said. "Although some of the players aren't too physically strong just yet, they are mentally tough. It's great that we get to have our eighth-graders for an extra year."

Vinny Costello also adds to the Crusaders' arsenal. His size and power hitting, combined with his speed and heads-up base running, make him a dual threat in the lineup.

"I'm looking forward to us having a winning season," said Costello, who played in the Pony League World Series championship game last year for Team Tamiami in the 12-Under Division. "We have a great coaching staff and my teammates have been working hard at practices."

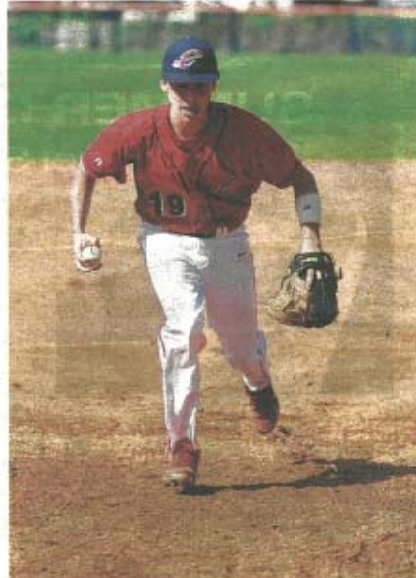

Costello added: "My goal is for our [CSCA] team to win a district championship so other players will want to be a part of this winning program."

The Crusaders' 18-game regular season began last month and will run into the early part of April, possibly followed by postseason tournament(s).

for the Crusaders are second baseman David Keene, catcher Austin Seabolt and outfielder Ruben Guante.

"Our team is still young, but the players do take it seriously," Cleveland said. "We just want to make sure they continue to play the right way. They've all already played a lot of ball to get to this point."
